2017 Educator of the Year Awards

TEF continues to honor excellence in education with the 9th annual Educator of the Year awards for Thompson School District. Nominations for the 2017 Educators of the Year are welcome from coworkers, supervisors, parents, students and community members in five categories. Please use the link that best fits your nomination category.

- Elementary Teacher of the Year (early childhood - 5th grade)
- Secondary Teacher of the Year (6th grade - 12th grade)
- Principal of the Year
- Classified Employee of the Year
- APT Employee (Administrative, Professional or Technical) of the Year

All nominations will be considered for the 2017 TEF Educator of the Year award.

Educator of the Year nominees and award winners will be honored at Embassy Suites Loveland on Tuesday, February 21, 2017, during TEF's annual Educator Appreciation Breakfast. Table and event sponsorships are available. For more information, please contact info@thompsontef.org.

Education is Everyone's Business Breakfast 2016

TEF's annual breakfast event held on November 4 was an energetic morning of knowledge shared by guest speakers Noel Ginsburg and Dr. Elizabeth Hinde. These standout education supporters raised many new ideas for education, business and community leaders in the audience to consider. Thank you to our sponsors!
